Mr. Johnson, Ms. Jackson, and Ms. Margulies concur.

This cause and matter came on to be considered by the Board of Tax Appeals upon a notice of appeal filed herein by the above-named appellant, from a decision of the Hamilton County Board of Revision. In said decision, the board of revision determined the taxable value of the subject property for tax year 1999.

The matter was submitted to the Board of Tax Appeals upon the notice of appeal, the statutory transcript certified to this Board by the county board of revision, and the record of the hearing before this Board¹, at which the county appellees waived their appearance.

Proceeding to the merits herein, we note that the subject real property is located in the 001– Cincinnati Corp. taxing district, Hamilton County, Ohio, and appears on the auditor’s records as parcel number 123-0002-0151. The value of the parcel, as determined by the auditor and retained by the board of revision, is as follows:

	TRUE VALUE	TAXABLE VALUE
Land	$ 22,500	$ 7,880
Bldg	$ 46,300	$ 16,210
Total	$ 68,800	$ 24,090

In his notice of appeal to this Board and his testimony before us, appellant (hereinafter “Mr. Overstreet”) contends that the auditor and board of revision have overvalued the subject property and that its market value for the tax year in question is $56,000.

Before this Board, Mr. Overstreet provided testimony and presented a packet of seven comparables (Exh. 2), which consists of Multiple Listing Service (“MLS”) sales data sheets.² Mr. Overstreet, by his own admissions, is not familiar with the details of the comparable sales, other than what he has gleaned from the documents he presented. (R. p. 20) Further, Mr. Overstreet testified that he is familiar with the subject’s area and offered his concern about comparable sales offered by the auditor below. (S.T. Exh. III)

This Board notes the decisions in Cleveland Bd. of Edn. v. Cuyahoga Cty. Bd. of Revision (1994), 68 Ohio St.3d 336, 337, and Springfield Local Bd. of Edn. v. Summit Cty. Bd. of Revision (1994), 68 Ohio St.3d 493, 495, wherein the Supreme Court held that an appealing party has the burden of coming forward with evidence in support of the value which it has claimed. Once competent and probative evidence of true value has been presented, the opposing parties then have a corresponding burden of providing evidence which rebuts appellant's evidence of value. Id.; Mentor Exempted Village Bd. of Edn. v. Lake Cty. Bd. of Revision (1988), 37 Ohio St.3d 318, 319.

Further, while we acknowledge that "Ohio law has long recognized that an owner of either real or personal property is, by virtue of such ownership, competent to testify as to the market value of the property," the owner's testimony must also be probative and credible as to market value. Smith v. Padgett (1987), 32 Ohio St.3d 344, 347. Herein, appellant is not an appraiser by trade, nor did he indicate that he had any appraisal training. As to his evidence of value, Mr. Overstreet relied solely upon the allegedly comparable sales (Ex. 2), the details of which he had no knowledge. His source for this information was a multiple listing service, and, as such, none of the data contained in the service's report was verified for accuracy, either by the service or Mr. Overstreet. In addition, there is no way to determine if the sales in question were arm's-length. Accordingly, appellant has not sufficiently demonstrated to this Board that the value which he seeks has any basis in the market.

Thus, based upon the foregoing, we find that appellant has not offered sufficient, probative evidence of the subject's value for the tax year in question. It is this Board's statutory duty to find taxable value herein. R.C. 5717.03. As such, one of our primary concerns relates to the market value of the subject property. Accordingly, with no other evidence of market value before us that we find to be probative and credible, we will utilize the county board of revision’s valuation of the subject. As the Supreme Court stated in Simmons v. Cuyahoga Cty. Bd. of Revision (1998), 81 Ohio St.3d 47, “(W)here the BTA rejects the evidence presented to it as not being competent and probative, or not credible, and there is no evidence from which the BTA can independently determine value, it may approve the board of revision’s valuation * * * .” Thus, we adopt the valuation for the subject property, as established by the board of revision. Specifically, the value of the subject property, as of January 1, 1999, shall be as follows:

	TRUE VALUE	TAXABLE VALUE
Land	$ 22,500	$ 7,880
Bldg	$ 46,300	$ 16,210
Total	$ 68,800	$ 24,090

It is the Decision and Order of the Board of Tax Appeals that the Hamilton County Auditor shall list and assess the subject property in conformity with this decision.
