Entered March 3, 2009

This matter is now considered by the Board of Tax Appeals upon a “Motion for Extension of Time to File Brief” filed by counsel for appellant, William J. Ross. The appellant requests an extension of 30 days, to March 30, 2009, to file its response to the appellee’s brief.

The board would note that while the appellant proceeded pro se, he availed himself of two extensions of time in which to file legal argument. Nevertheless, as appellant has now elected to proceed with counsel, the board will grant the request for a thirty-day extension. However, no further extensions of time will be granted.
