Entered May 26, 2009

This matter is currently before the Board of Tax Appeals as a result of a joint motion of the parties to extend the discovery period for twenty-eight days beyond the one-hundred and twenty day time frame which expires on May 18, 2009.

The basis of said motion is that counsel for the appellant desires additional time to respond to discovery requests of the appellee. Further, the extension of time will not cause any delay in this board’s proceedings.

Based upon the motion, this board finds good cause for an extension of time for the parties to complete discovery. Accordingly, it is the order of the Board of Tax Appeals that the parties will have an additional twenty-eight (28) days, until June 15, 2009, to seek this board's involvement in any discovery matters.
